MISS BRUNSON HOSTESS TO BUSINESS WOMEN'S CIRCLE

The Business Women's Circle of the Baptist Missionary Society was delightfully entertained for its meeting by Miss Mabel Brunson in her home on Buford Street, Monday evening.

The president called the meeting to order and after disposing of several items, turned the meeting over to Mrs. J. A. Timmerman, who taught an interesting mission lesson from "The Fruits of the Years," and closed with a prayer for the 50th anniversary program and future missions.

During a social hour, the guests were invited into the dining room and served delicious punch and sandwiches from an attractively appointed lace-covered table by the hostess. Later, the guests enjoyed nuts and toasting marshmallows.

Those present on this enjoyable occasion were: Miss Nora Bullock, Miss Carrie Vaughn, Miss Elsie Sellers, Mrs. Baxter Bryan, Mrs. R. L. Martin, Mrs. J. A. Timmerman, Miss Zula Rowe and the hostess, Miss Mabel Brunson.

Mrs. Lillian Ringsdorf has returned to Elba from Birmingham, where she spent some time with relatives.

Corn Fed To Hens Pays Good Profits In Four Demonstrations Reported By Asst. County Agent

Coffee County has four demonstration flocks entered in the contest sponsored by the Auburn Poultry Department, according to information received from J. E. Washington, Assistant County Agent. The farms having these flocks are numbered as follows: 25A, 29C, 29D, and 29E. Below Mr. Washington gives a summary for these flocks for the month of December, last:

For Farm 29A—No. of hens, 92; total eggs, 1,621; total feed cost, $10.95; feed cost per dozen eggs, .681; price eggs sold for, .315; return above feed cost (per farm), $31.57; return above feed cost (per hen), .343.

For Farm 29C—No. of hens, 100; total eggs, 480; total feed cost, $11.65; feed cost per dozen eggs, .241; price eggs sold for, .30; return above feed cost (per farm), $31.57; return above feed cost (per hen), .303.

For Farm 29E—No. of hens, 83; total eggs, 660; total feed cost, $7.50; feed cost per dozen eggs, .136; price eggs sold for, .245; return above feed cost (per farm), $11.47; return above feed cost (per hen), .138.

The above figures show an average return above feed cost per hen for the month of 1937. There were an average of 2.80 pounds of grain consumed per bird during the month and an average of 3.84 pounds of mash consumed per bird.

When cotton is selling for 12c per pound, 100 hens would produce an equivalent of 126 pounds of lint cotton for this month, and when it costs 4c per pound to grow cotton, these 100 hens produce a profit equal to 252 pounds of lint cotton, according to Mr. Washington's figures.

ADMIN. BUILDING OF COFFEE TRAINING SCHOOL, FIRE LOSS

The administration building of the Coffee County Training School for negro students was completely destroyed by fire Sunday night at 8 o'clock. There was no one in the building at the time the fire originated, but defective wiring was believed to have been the cause. The county carried insurance to the amount of $5,000. The 200 students enrolled are meeting classes in the vocational unit, which escaped the flames, and in two nearby churches.

The institution, an accredited high school, with emphasis on vocational agriculture, manual arts and home economics, is one of the oldest and best known for colored students in this section.

Principal Stuckey expects to carry on without interruption of schedules until a new building is provided.

Elba people will read the above article, which appeared in The Enterprise Ledger of last Friday, with peculiar interest. At about the time the building burned a number of students of the school, forming quads, were in the vicinity of the school, where they had just completed a very interesting program of spiritual songs at the Elba Methodist Church. These students, with their leaders, were invited to Elba by Mrs. C. Dunaway, counselor of the Young People's Division. White friends were invited to learn of the misfortune that came to the colored training school.
